ABOUT DARE2TRI

Dare2tri Paratriathlon Club's mission is to positively impact the lives of athletes with physical disabilities and visual impairments by developing their skills in paratriathlon. Dare2tri's vision is to have a sustainable Chicago-based club that serves as a model for community-based programs across the country.

Since 2011, Dare2tri has served youth, adults and injured service members with blindness, visual impairments or a physical disability such as amputation, spinal cord injury, stroke, spina bifida or cerebral palsy.

Dare2tri is an Illinois based 501(c)3 non-for-profit organization.

DARE2TRI ELITE TEAM

The Dare2tri Elite Team is comprised of world-class athletes who are devoted to reaching their full competitive potential on the national and international stages. Dare2tri is dedicated to the members of the Elite Team as they pursue and achieve athletic excellence by providing personalized training, logistical and financial support.

Head coach Stacey Seay leads the Dare2tri Elite Team and develops individualized training plans to help elite athletes meet their performance and competition goals.

Dare2tri is continually working to develop the next group of elite athletes through its Development Team, comprised of emerging paratriathletes. By providing high level coaching, mentoring, and support, Dare2tri can help further develop these athletes' skills leading to attainment of personal goals.

In 2015, the Dare2tri Elite and Development Team athletes earned seven National titles, five World medals, one World gold medal, two Paralympic provisional spots, and one Paralympic spot on Team USA.

DARE2TRI ELITE TEAM CAMP

As part of the Elite and Development Teams, Dare2tri hosts an annual Elite Team Camp, the Official Technical Training Camp of USA Paratriathlon, for all Elite and Development Team members. Dare2tri provides top-testing and instructional opportunities, including: VO2 max testing, Dart Fish video analysis of run/push, Swim Smooth video analysis, functional strength yoga, and bike fit.

In 2016, Dare2tri plans to host a week-long, destination camp for its elite and development athletes to allow ample time for outdoor training in preparation for the "Road to Rio."

PARATRIATHLON AT THE 2016 PARALYMPIC GAMES

Paratriathlon will experience its Paralympic debut at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Paralympic Games! Three medal events will be held per gender (6 total) for a combined maximum field of 60 athletes (30 men, 30 women), including: men's PT1, PT2, PT4, and women's PT2, PT4, PT5. The U.S. Paralympic Triathlon Team will be nominated on or before July 26, 2016.

With several top-ranked athletes competing on the Dare2tri Elite and Development Teams, many will spend 2016 working toward the "Road to Rio" to represent the USA in the Paralympic Games on September 7-18, 2016.

DARE2TRI & THE 'ROAD TO RIO'

Dare2tri's Hailey Danisewicz (PT2) became the first Team USA member following her silver medal finish at the World Championships on September 18, 2015.

Krige Schabert (PT1) and Grace Norman (PT4), of Dare2tri, each earned provisional Paralympic spots after their performances at the Rio de Janeiro ITU World Paratriathlon Event on August 1, 2015. Their individual spots can be confirmed at a sprint-distance, non-draft event to be held between March 1-June 30, 2016.

Several other Dare2tri athletes will be able to earn their Team USA spots at the yet-to-be-determined sprint-distance, non-draft event to be held between March 1-June 30, 2016, including top-contenders: Zach Young (PT1), Howie Sanborn (PT1), Melissa Stockwell (PT2), Brian Norberg (PT2), Levi Kane (PT2), and Sara Koehnke (PT4).

It is Dare2tri's goal to represent a large portion of Team USA at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Paralympic Games in September!
